Communities Against Senior Exploitation (C.A.S.E.) is a program of the Redondo Beach Police Department Investigative Division to provide fraud prevention, intervention, and victim support. The program is being hosted by Detective Scott Martin and Detective Blake Nimmons who bring a wealth of knowledge and investigative experience. Detective Martin has been a police officer for over 24 years, with over five years of investigative experience. Detective Nimmons has been a police officer for over 19 years, with over seven years of investigative experience. Detective Martin and Detective Nimmons believe and advocate that the first step in preventing scams is knowing about them. Our hope going into the Holiday Season is that our seniors will recognize scams hiding in plain sight, learn how to protect themselves, and feel comfortable reaching out to law enforcement to report these scams.
